I. Author's Life	1. Born July 4, 1804 in Salem, Mass. & died May 19, 1864 in Plymouth, NH	("Nathaniel") Ancestors lived in Salem and are connected to the witch trials:
	William Hathorne "acted as a staunch defender of puritan orthodoxy"
	- "a zealous advocacy of a 'pure' unaffected form of religious worship , rigid adherence to a simple, almost severe, mode of life, and its conviction of the 'natural depravity' of fallen man"
	John Hathorne was a judge at the Salem Witch Trials and the only judge never to express regret Nathaniel changed spelling of his surname from Hathorne to Hawthorne when he began his writing career
